1. Pensions are no longer paid to former officers, officials of the Ministry of the Interior, officials of the municipalities, police and security services, and other political positions. They are still paid to retired postal officials.
2. Old age homes are built for persons entitled to pensions and medical pensioners evacuated from workers' towns. Those admitted to the homes will receive full room and board. Such homes are planned for Vatra Dornei, Craiova, and Transylvania.
3. A number of pensioners have been sent back to work in hospitals and state enterprises because of the shortage of doctors and engineers.
